"You never can be dead, not while the laughter
And joy that you have made lives on and grows;
The garden spot is blest with fragrance after
The vivid life has gone from June-time's rose.
And you who gave the world new dreams of gladness,

Who gave the faith of childhood back again,
Will never pass into a vale of sadness.
Just as the rainbow follows cooling rain,
The people of your help will live and lighten
The path that weary, earth-bound folk must tread;
The thoughts of your sweet mind will always brighten
The lives of others. You cannot be dead,
You are transplanted just across the way,
And we will meet you smiling there some day."

ECHOES FROM COUNCIL

1934 Session will be held in Birmingham, Alabama.

"If your church and my church is going to be truly missionary it's the task of the women to make it so."—Dr. W. G. Cram.

The way up is the way down—on our knees in prayer.

More than 4,000 Spiritual Life groups are organized and praying because they believe prayer can and does make a difference.

In the home field, the great move of population back to the country brings rural needs to the front.

"Women in China are assuming responsibility and developing leadership. Home churches must be taught that supporting a national leader is just as worthwhile as sending a missionary."—Miss Mary Culler White.

"The future is bright for the children's work. Let us go ahead on a larger scale."—Miss Rumbough.

"We must translate our ideas into righteous public opinion. 'A Christian citizen is a follower of Jesus Christ who relates his Christian principles to his political actions'."—Mrs. J. W. Mlls.

"If you as church people don't find a way to enter politics legitimately, politics will get the best of you."—Mrs. Newell.

Vote—"Those opposed to your view will be at the polls early and in some localities often."

"We shall fight for fairly organized conventions and a moral decision."—Dr. Cram, reporting the Prohibition mergency Conference.

"If you would see Peace, study government. A clear road lies between each citizen and the world policy of his nation. It is this—voting precinct, town, Congressional District, Nation."—Mr. Paul Harris.

"As members of the church we have an obligation to it and our obligation to the Missionary Society does not free us of the other, but we do an injustice to the church if we assume its financial responsibilities."—Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb.

Total Council pledge was 85% paid, Louisiana's only 75%.

Mrs. Fulton's one message for each auxiliary was that every woman make a pledge, however small, and pay something toward it each month.

"I, to whom much has been given, will give for those from whom much has been taken."—Mrs. W. A. Newell.

Reverend Bessie Oliver, licensed to preach in Korea, was asked to pronounce a benediction.

"The status of women is not so much a matter of prejudice as of inheritance."—Mrs. J. C. Handy.

"Our strength is not in budgets and banks ,but in the resources of God. Let the world talk dolorously. We have belief that the impossible can be done through faith and those principles the world can't understand."—Bishop Paul Kern.

"Got any seas they say are uncrossable?
Got any mountains you can't tunnel through?
We specialize in the wholly impossible
Doing the things they say we can't do."

—Quoted by Mrs. Downs.

THE MONROE CONFERENCE

"WHODATHUNKIT"

There was once a new town mapped out and before it was named, a rich old miser was asked for a contribution. So far in excess was his generous gift of what the inhabitants imagined, one old man in surprise, said, "Who'd a thunk it," and the town was ever after called "Whodathunkit".

This seems to us a most appropriate name for our twenty-third annual session of the Womans' Missionary Conference of La., for first of it all it had to be postponed for two weeks and coming just previous to Easter which is a busy time with all the Churches. Then there came the Bank Moratorium which affected personal and Missionary finances and there was a general "tale of woe" and the members did not feel in the proper frame of mind to hold a Conference. An other reason was that it became necessary to crowd into two short days all the business of the year, the plans, promotions, and the spiritual uplift—Pessimism reigned supreme and every where one heard "there won't be fifty delegates." However it was decided to go on with the Conference and the Monroe people cordially threw open their doors and made ready. Much to our surprise there were 167 delegates registered and every officer and District Secretary, 22 in number, a larger delegation than we have had in years. Moreover there was a larger number of visitors. In fact the Monroe Church was crowded at every service and the evening session had to be held in a large School Auditorium where there was not an empty seat for the beautiful pageant.

Was it worth while? Ask those who attended. Thanks to fine executives like Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. Ledbetter ,while every moment was filled from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. so well was the work planned and timed, everything went on like clock work, and there seemed no rush and excitement. As for the inspiration, it was all in a nut shell but oh how wonderful it was. To hear what the Districts have accomplished in spite of hard times, through their secretaries, to listen to Miss Hooper, one of her co-workers, (who by the way is one of our own Louisiana girls), and to the little girl who has a scholarship at MacDonell Wesley House; to laugh and cry with Miss Nettie Stroup over a sample of one of her busy days at St. Mark's; to have Dr. Scott, pastor of the Monroe Church to tell us in his eloquent way what it means to be a burning and a shining light, and to have our own sunny happy Julia Reid with us to tell of her work and to know through Miss Mary Freeman the work of Jubilee Inn were enough to make us glad to have been there. When we say that, "the half has never been told" for ours was the great privilege to have that wonderful woman, Mary Culler White speak to us several times and that was worth the entire Conference. So rich with experience, having spent 32 years in China, so full of enthusiasm, so humorous, so gracious, so friendly, so bright, so filled with the Holy Spirit—there is only one Mary Culler White and we had her and every soul who attended the Conference is singing peons of joy. In the store house of our Memory, those Conference days will ever stand out as the transfiguration must have stood out to Peter, James, and John, and we say with them, "Master it was good to be there."

MRS. GEORGE S. BROWN,
State Recording Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION

Mrs. Guy Hicks, Mrs. G. W. Dameron and Mrs. F. A. Bacon drew up resolutions of appreciation of the Conference to the Presiding Elder and all the ministers for their presence, cooperation and assistance—to the Missionary Society of Monroe, to hostesses, chairmen of committees, office force and membership for courtesies to the officers and District Secretaries—to all who participated in the program,—to our special Conference guests—to organist, choir and soloists—to the flower committee—to those who arranged the beautiful pageant—to the Presbyterian women for the lunches, and to the two newspapers for publicity.

EXECUTIVE MINUTES

MID-TERM MEETING

Arcadia, La., October 25, 1932

As a prelude to the Mid-term Executive Meeting at Arcadia, Mrs. R. F. Harrell gave a beautiful spiritual life message.

Judging from the cordiality of the welcome, the preparations made, the messages sent out by Mayor, organizations, posters, etc. one would have thought Arcadia was expecting the royalty and that would hardly be a wrong conception, for are not the Missionary Women here on business for The King?

The Arcadia Missionary Society entertained at a delightful luncheon, the courses interspersed with song and readings.

The President, Mrs. Sexton called the meeting to order after lunch.

The Secretary called the roll and found only two officers absent and all District Secretaries present, as well as Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Harrell, Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Irvine.

Mrs. Sexton named the following committees:

Finance: Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Carver, Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Ledbetter.

Promotion: Mrs. Ledbetter and District Secretaries.

Program: Mrs. Pollard, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Sexton.

Year Book and Minutes: Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Fine.

Constitution and By-Laws: Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Bradshaw.

Committees retired to different rooms for meetings.

Tuesday Evening

Mrs. McDonald led the Devotional for the evening meeting. Mrs. Gallaher read the Council Hymn and Mrs. McDonald talked of Philip, whom she termed a lay leader.

The Minutes were read and approved.

The interesting feature of Mrs. Martin's report was the fact that at last the Mt. Sequoyah pledge has been paid.

Mrs. Ledbetter's expenditure of $4.00 in stamps signifies that her pen has been mightier than the sword.

The Treasurer's report stated only half the amouunt of pledge sent to Mrs. Fuller.

The question was asked: Does the new system of not requiring dues affect the financial situation materially or is it the Depression that has necessitated the decrease?

The District Secretaries were called on to answer. Some thought one thing, some another, but the main thing is getting new members.

Mrs. Powers reported eleven new circles among young people.

Our new publicity superintendent has sent out over 2,100 leaflets, bulletins etc. There are 1,392 subscriptions to the World Outlook.

Mrs. Clark being absent, Mrs. Irvine gave her report on Christian Social Relations.

Mrs. Woodard, Superintendent Supplies, displayed some very interesting charts with contagious enthusiasm.

Mrs. Pollard spoke optimistically of zone work and read a letter from Mrs. Downs relative to the Rural Worker. It was moved, seconded and carried to have Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. Ledbetter talk over the rural workers with Mrs. Downs at Council.

The District Secretaries gave brief outlines of their work. It was voted to retain the Rural Worker in the Alexandria District.

Mrs. Gallaher reported one colored zone organized.

Nearly all the District Secretaries stated pledges only half paid and probably the final result will be seventy-five per cent. There have been new members and a few new Auxiliaries.

The meeting closed with prayer by the Secretary.

Wednesday Morning

Mrs. Powers, Superintendent Young People's Circles, read one of Christ's Messages to His disciples.

Mrs. Cunningham paid a tribute to Mrs. Hyams, who continues to help in editing the News, and asked for suggestions.

Mrs. Sexton stated that she had gotten a pretty good grasp of the duties of a President, had met with splendid co-operation and has been happy in her work.

Mrs. Martin, chairman Finance reported. It was recommended that the Conference Budget be $31,500. $30,000 Conference pledge and $1,500 for Conference expenses—which is placing Conference expense fund on a five per cent basis.

2nd Recommendation: That our officers confer with Council officers regarding a working basis for Conference expense fund—Carried.

3rd. That the Treasurer reimburse Conference Expense Fund the $88.00 that was expended on Rural workers car from the $138 for Rural fund that was sent from Council—Carried.

4th. That the Committee to visit Council Institutions be allowed to present an expense accounut for at least one visit per year to the Institution—Carried.

5th. Any proposed change in By-laws presented the Committee 30 days previous be typed for distribution to the delegates—Carried.

Mrs. Ledbetter from Promotion Committee recommended that some one be appointed to collect form reports at Conference from officers and District Secretaries and Chairman of Committees and distribute to President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary and Editor of News. Also that she be authorized to have Committee reports typed.

1. That Standard of Excellence be printed in Minutes with necessary changes.—Carried.

2. The Program committee recommended that we begin one Conference March 28th closing March 30th. Executive Meetings to precede and follow Conference Meeting.—Carried.

3. That we ask the Presiding Elder and Pastor of Monroe to have charge of Communion service at the opening meeting.

4. That Miss McKinnon be given the Tuesday evening session

5. It was voted to have a Pageant and a National as speaker for Wednesday evening.

6. That District Secretaries be permitted five minutes and they make their reports as inspirational as possible.

7. That the pastor at Monroe be asked to give the Devotionals.

8. That we omit Open Forum. It was decided to leave the making of the program to the Program Committee.

It was decided to put requirements of Life Members. Add requirements for Baby Life Members, also where money goes.

It was recommended that we cut out from the Year Book all that is in Hand Book except By-Laws.

Owing to the removal of Mrs. Queen from Louisiana it becomes necessary to regretfully accept her resignation and the Secretary was authorized to write her.

Another blow came when Mrs. Lonnie Clarke sent her resignation and the Secretary was authorized to write her a letter of appreciation.

Mrs. R. S. Crichlow of New Orleans was nominated for Superintendent of Children's Work to serve uuntil Annual Conference and she was elected.

Mrs. Martin nominated Mrs. Irvine to fulfill the unexpired term as Superintendent of Christian Social Relations and she was elected.

Mrs. Sexton will write Mrs. F. P. Jones and ask her to serve on the Committee of Status of Women.

Mrs. Irvine moved that this body go on record as opposed to the repeal of the 18th Amendment or Hood Act and all publicity possible be given to this stand.—Carried.

Brother Lee, pastor of the Arcadia Church, dismissed the morning meeting and all went down stairs to partake of another luncheon prepared by the Women's Auxiliary of Arcadia.

The President called the Executive Committee together after lunch to hear the Minutes which were read and accpted.

Mrs. Gallaher's cordial invitation to hold the next Mid-term Meeting at Trout was unanimously accepted.

Mrs. Harrell thanked the Executive Board for her trip to Sequoyah.

Mrs. Martin dismissed with prayer.

Mrs. Dawson, Secretary of this District, planned for this time an Inspirational meeting. The Church was well filled and with Mrs. Cunningham's Devotional, Mrs. Harrell's Spiritual Culture Talk, Mrs. Wimberly's reading and Mrs. Armour's song, Mrs. Dawsons anticipations were more than realized.

MRS. GEORGE S. BROWN,
Recording Secretary.
MRS. GEORGE SEXTON, JR.
President.

EXECUTIVE MEETING

Monroe, April 11, 1933.

The members of the Executive Board gathered promptly at 9:30, Tuesday April 11th, at the Monroe Methodist Church. After calling the meeting to order and a few words of welcome, the Devotional was led by the Recording Secretary, who gave the Indian's version of the 3rd Psalm and a Chinese prayer. Mrs. Sexton appointed Committee. All of the officers were present and all of the Superintendents. Plans were formed for the entire session, Mrs. Sexton urging all to limit reports and expedite matters as speedily as possible, owing to the curtailed Conference session.

MRS. GEORGE S. BROWN,
State Recording Secretary.
MRS. GEO. SEXTON, JR.,
President.

Executive Meeting

Mrs. Martin was elected chairman of the Finance Committee and Mrs. Irvine of By-Laws. The number of pads will be lessened and also the number of year books. It was decided to leave the cutting of the pages of the Year Book to Mrs. Sexton, Ledbetter, Fine and Brown. Mrs. Ledbetter suggested that the expenses of the District Secretary making highest score have her expenses paid to Birmingham to Council next Spring. It was moved, seconded and carried. It was voted to cut Miss Ora Hooper's salary to $85.00, $10.00 for expense and no equipment.

It was decided to continue the La.-News Monthly that Mrs. Hyams be made Editor and Mrs. Cunningham Business Manager.

The Executive Meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Swan.

MRS. GEO. S. BROWN,
State Recording Secretary.
MRS. GEO. SEXTON, JR.,
President.

OFFICIAL MINUTES

MONROE, TUESDAY, APRIL 11th. 1933

The 23rd Annual Session of the Women's Missionary Society of Louisiana, convened at Monroe, Tuesday, April 11th. After an Executive session Mrs. Harrell opened the regular meeting with morning prayer, a fitting service of preparation and consecration for the busy Conference session. After this the Sacrament was administered by Dr. H. T. Carley, Presiding Elder of the Monroe District, assisted by the Monroe pastors, Reverends Scott, Hoffauir and Bentley.

There were over 300 communicants and a well filled church when Dr. Carley introduced our President, Mrs. Geo. Sexton, Jr., who called to order the Annual Meeting, which was, to have been March 28th to 31st, but owing to the postponement of Council had to be also postponed to the present date.

Mrs. Sexton said it was with fear and trepidation this meeting was decided on, at this time of closed banks, but the rally to the call has been marvelous. It is indicative of the fact that we feel at this time the need of drawing near to Christ. Every officer responded to Roll Call and each District was largely represented, a total of 141 delegates plus 22 officers, a total of 165.

The Mid-term Executive Minutes were read and approved.

The President's Annual Report was optimistic and inspirational.

Mrs. Martin gave her report as Vice-President. Some times the office of Vice-President is considered merely an honor—just some one to preside in the absence of the President. Not so in the Missionary Society and Mrs. Martin has been so busy, one wonders if there are only 24 hours in her day.

Mrs. Sexton said we have approached the Treasurer's report with trembling the last two years but considering the unusual and paralyzing conditions of finances, Mrs. Carver's report was far from discouraging. When the living expenses have had to be cut so materially, 75% is not a bad percentage for the women to raise on their pledges.

Mrs. Irvine's Christian Social Relations report was a stirring one, embracing our responsibility for observance and enforcement of law. This was followed by a talk on Prevention of Lynching, by Mrs. B. F. Knox, of Shreveport.

It was moved and seconded that the women go on record as approving the Anti-Lynching law. (Miss Julia Reid gave a resolution from Lake Charles Missionary Society signed by Mrs. Craw Girard and Mrs. H. de Manode, to the effect that our Missionary Conference endorse the resolution of the Parent Teacher's Association, assembled at Kaplan, La., regarding the passage of legislation to pay teachers salaries and not to shorten school term and that special funds derived from special taxes be dedicated to schools and placed in separate sacred funds, apart from general funds—Carried. Dr. C. C. Neill in the interest of Haygood College was given a place on the program in the absence from illness of Dr. Angie Smith, who was to have told of the Paine College Jubilee.)

Dr. McLelland next told of the Conference of Christian Workers to be held at Mansfield, June 26th to July 1st. The Missionary Society pledged its co-operation—Mrs. B. W. Lippscomb, Dr. J. E. Crawford, Mrs. W. W. Holmes, Rev. H. W. Williams, Mrs. R. E. Smith, will be the speakers and teachers—Mrs. Harrell will also have part on the program. Vesper services every evning and Bishop Dobbs will speak at night—the afternoons will be given to recreation. The small fee of $8.00 will be the charge for room, meals and courses. Registration begins May 15th.

Mrs. Collins, general local chairman made announcements and introductions. There were a goodly number of Ministers present proving their co-operation, but some were out at a meeting or lunch and Dr. Briscoe Carter introduced in his own inimitable manner those who were present.

Mrs. F. V. Allison's solo, "His Eye is on the Sparrow," opened the Worship and Meditation period given by Miss Mary Culler White.

Miss White who has spent 32 years in China wore a Chinese costume of blue silk. If Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. Ledbetter had brought nothing else from Council but Miss Mary Culler White, their trip would have been worth while. Miss White said she was going to speak on five of the great Cs of the gospel, choosing two this morning and three for tomorrow—Today's Cs are the Great Confession, and the Great Commission. She declared we weren't ready for the Great Commission until we make the Great Confession—Peter knew because he'd had an experience by daily living with Christ, that He was the Son of God—The gates of hell will never prevail against this faith for no church founded on this rock will ever fail therefore Satan seeks subtly to destroy this faith.

She laid on our hearts thetruth that we must be born again. She exhorted all to seek and find Christ through Isa 53 and 6 so as to make the great Confession.

When through with this experience we are ready for the Great Commission—claiming the promise of the Savior to be with us as we go to preach the Gospel to all the world. Miss White said, Chinese can't realize that we who know the Christ have been so long in conveying the message. When we get on fire with what has been done for us we cannot but tell of the things we have seen and heard. All power is given unto us and we are to go baptizing them, not only in the name of the Father but of the Son and the Holy Ghost.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. R. H. Harper.

Afternoon Session

After a most tempting luncheon prepared by the Presbyterian ladies, the President called the meeting to order. The scripture and prayer were led by Mrs. W. E. Sisson. The hymn Lead on "O King Eternal" was sung as the procession of 1932 Life Members came forward, and as each was presented, Mrs. Martin told why each one was made a Life Member, and emblems were pinned on them. Miss Synder told the meaning of the Life Membership and the Christian symbol. Mrs. Atkinson told of the meaning of a Life Membership to the Adults.

We were indeed fortunate in having two Missionaries at our Conference. No one was ever heard more gladly than Miss Julia Reid, our own Louisiana Missionary who is now on furlough from Cuba. Her topic was "The Soul's Quest". Once when Kipling who was ill in a hospital was asked by a nurse what he wanted, his response was "I want my Heavenly Father." He but voiced the quest of all the heart-hungry souls all over the world. It is our part in life to show to these yearning souls this Heavenly Father. As the caged eagle longs for flight, so it is the material yearning of our souls to fly to God who is our refuge and strength. We are restless until we find our hunger for God satisfied.

Ours is the privilege to heal broken hearts. We can not keep a Christ that we do not share.

Mrs. Sexton called forward the Department Heads and Mrs. Pollard gave a summary of zone work and gave the names of the zones attaining standard of excellence. She gave a report also of the rural work. Miss Ora Hooper, rural worker, told of her work during the past year.

Mrs. Bradshaw talked on the advancement in Mission and Bible Study and awarded 56 certificates of honor.

Mrs. Powers, Secretary of Young Women's Groups spoke of their activities.

Mrs. Crichlow the new superintendent of Children's Work said eleven were on the Honor roll so the silver cup can only be retained one month each by the Honor circles.

Mrs. Woodard acclaimed herself the happiest of all officers and greatly in love with her work as Superintendent of Supplies.

If we should have a popularity contest, we believe Mrs. Cunningham would be the winner and while Mrs. Fine is her splendid successor in the Literary and Publishing work, we are glad that she has retained the editorship of the Louisiana News, assisted by Mrs. Hyams.

Mrs. Fine touched briegly on the world outlook, showing that of 5,000 members, there are only 951 subscribers. The Arcadia Auxiliary presented a playlet "Mrs. Porter Tries Publicity," which was both entertaining and inspirational .

Appreciative letters were read from our own Bessie Williams and Verna Webster, who were consecrated at Council and who are rejoicing that they will soon be appointed to Mission Fields. Meeting closed with prayer by President.

MRS. GEORGE S. BROWN,
Secretary.

Evening Session

The evening session of the Missionary Society was held in the large auditorium of the Georgia Tucker school which was filled to its utmost capacity. Mrs. Hoyt M. Dobbs led the Devotional service using part of the 17th of John as her subject of Prayer. This was followed by a solo by Mrs. Hadley Leavell. During an offering by Mrs. John Sholars and a violin accompaniment, an offering was taken by the young people who acted as ushers. The short session of the Conference permitted of only one night session but it was brim full and running over with good things. The outstanding feature of the Conference was the address of Miss Mary Culler White. Again she appeared in a Chinese costume of very charming light blue silk, which was not at all conspicuous and she explained that Chinese styles change as often as American. She spoke of her shoes made from the material of her dress, very like our own and displayed the tiny shoe of a Chinese bride—no larger than that of a year old baby. She stated that foot binding is now almost obsolete—one of the changes brought about by Missions. The children of the congregation were greatly interested in the large gaudy crimson silk handkerchief carried by a bride and her demonstration of the Chinese use of chop sticks.

Miss White spoke of the International condition of China. The Chinese are friendly toward the Americans because we have taken no land from them, whereas other nations have. She said she considers Russia as the greatest menace of the world. Our Eastern colleges are shooting the pupils through and through with Communism. Russia is hiring Chinese students to attend their schools. Russia, if she could get hold of China would go out and destroy the world.

China fears most her nearest neighbor, Japan, who has taken from her, her most precious possession. Japan believes in militarism

To a large extent old religions are being put aside by China and it is now the question whether she shall have the Christian religion or no religion at all. Shall we give them the Christ we know?

Miss White told of the Missionary meetings in China, numbering 5,000 members. She said we might think we'd had a hard time because our banks were closed and our meeting was postponed two weeks, but that was nothing to the delay of the Chinese meeting because the people were fleeing for their lives from the Japanese. Bombs were falling, children killed, men and women murdered. Hardly had the guns ceased firing when the women assembled for their annual meeting and marvelous to say they were not behind with their offering. She gave some heroic examples of Chinese Christians, their devotion and sacrifices, so great as to put us to shame and urged us with all her eloquence to give the Chinese a chance.

The choir of Monroe First Church rendered an Anthem.

Miss Julia Reid was presented with flowers, making a graceful acknowledgment. The circle named for her, the Julia Reid Circle, and the Lena Monk Circle for a former pastor's wife, presented a beautiful Pageant in four episodes, entitled: "The Light of the World," which was enthusiastically received. The concensus of opinion was that the one evening of Conference was so filled with golden nuggets it was worth every effort made to attend.

MRS. GEO. S. BROWN.

Wednesday Morning

Mrs. Harrell, chairman of the Spiritual Life Group opened the session early Wednesday morning, and Rev. W. L. Scott, pastor of the church followed with worship and meditation. He chose as his subject "Ye Are the Light of the World." He said we are only unlighted candles until Christ lights us. He is the one bright light, rising on a darkened day and lighting every man. We shine only as touched and transformed by Him—Apart from Him we do nothing—The moment we lose contact with Him, our light goes out. The Apostles were a cluster of unlighted candles until the day of contact. For us to shine is Christ. It is light we are to give out, not show and noise, not mere profession, but what will make the world light—mere activities will not do. Light rays noiselessly, silently, invisibly, not calling attention to self but revealing all that is beautiful. The dreariest places are made lovely by light. There must be burning before there can be light. Light shines at the cost of self consuming. It is true in the Christian life that burning must come before shining. We can not shine without cost and sacrifice. John the Baptist was a burning and a shining light. His life was sacrified but through all the ages his light still shines.

The Service of Remembrance was led by Mrs. W. T. Cunningham. This service is a very beautiful one to honor those whom we have loved and lost for awhile and in their memory those who carry on the work reconsecrate themselves. All of the District Secretaries, sitting on the plaform, read the names of those who have passed on since the last meeting and each, while all delegates from that District stood, pledged renewed or special service in their memory.

The Minutes were read and approved and then Miss Nettie Straup, Head Resident of St. Mark's, put on a demonstration, "All in the day's work at St. Mark's," showing in a small way the many phases of work there. She gathered together a bunch of children and a number of the delegates, who impersonated the characters around the Community House. As children came running in asking for puzzles, ball and bat, books, swimming pool etc. and men and women came asking for doctors, nurses, assistance, information, the audience realized as never before the wide field of usefulness at St. Mark's and made each Auxiliary determine to send supplies, and to co-operate in every way.

Mrs. Sexton called the deaconesses to the platform and introduced Miss Mary Freeman, who told of Jubilee Inn. Miss Ella Hooper, who is back in harness again at Houma, told many interesting things of the Rural work centered around MacDonell Wesley House, where there are 75 pupils and 10 workers. One of the pupils, who has a scholarship through a Parker Memorial Sunday School told of her happiness in being there and Miss Sheilah Nutall, another of our own girls who is now assisting Miss Hooper. Miss Hooper told of the newest work among the Indians, a group that has been sadly neglected. There are about 3,000 located in settlements in that part of Louisiana. A school has been established and the Indians are most responsive.

There are five new Life Members. Among them, one given Miss Ella Hooper, by her sister, Miss Ora.

Up to the present time, Mrs. Ledbetter who works unceasingly for the Conference (all realizing the office of Cor.-Sec. is a never-ending work) has not been heard from but at this time she gave a glowing report of the Women's Missionary Council, recently held in Louisville, where there were 26 Missionaries and 34 Deaconesses, not counting the 17 who were consecrated.

Mrs. Sexton continued the report of Council, declaring it was hard to tell of a trip around the world in a half hour. The Home Special for week of prayer, this year, is Paine College and the Foreign, a hospital in China. Mrs. Seton said the reduction of salaries and the cuts in finances ran like a scarlet thread throughout the Council, naturally causing gloom but there was so much of progress in other ways and of spirituality, the gloom was dissipated by bright rays of hope. After telling of the many features of Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Sexton ended her talk with a glimpse of the Consecration service, giving out as its inspirationl note "Deeper Consecration and Closer Co-operation."

Deaconess Grace Gatewood concluded the account of Council, bringing us in a nut shell the talks of Bishop Kiern. She told of the Pledge Service. For years we have thought of the women of America as giving of their abundance to Missions but now it must be of their sacrifice because of their love and this was followed by the Pledge service of our own Conference. This was done in a most unique way, another gem brought home from Council. One young woman holding "the world" in her hands, presented a life of freedom, irresponsibility, self indulgence and placed it on one side of the scale while another young woman held in her hand "the Church" symbol of faith, hope, love, comfort, truth, righteousness, and placed it on the other side of the scale. Alone the church could not outweigh the world, but as each District Secretary placed her bag of silver on the side of the Church to further God's work, totaling $31,500, which made the world go down on the scale, the church rose to its rightful place. Mrs. Sexton closed this with a prayer of dedication.

Mrs. Spinks presented "Status of Women."

Mrs. Harrell, being called away, her time was given to Miss White, who told of the Bible Women. In China, trained Bible women are necessary. She said we are not so poor that we are to call Bible women home. It is a strategic time now and Missionaries may in time be driven out, so it would be up to the Bible women to carry on. It is the Mission of the Bible women to comfort these that are driven from their homes. If we are so great on bargains we should esteem it a privilege to support these Bible women who are "marked down" serving for the small sum of $150 a year. She plead with the Conference not to give up the Bible women who are the hope of our church.

Mrs. Holloway made announcements and extended courtesies.

Mrs. Henry Whitfield's solo preceded Miss White's period of worship. She continued her talk on the 5 Great C's. Great Completion (Pentecost). The Great Commissary and the Great Consummation, (Coming). The disciples were afraid as sheep without a shepherd, but they had the Savior's promise that if they tarried, prayed and waited, they should be endued with the Holy Ghost. In waiting the disciples probably confessed their faults to one another and prepared themselves, so when the day of Pentecost came they were all in one accord and ready for the Holy Spirit. Every one of us needs this Great Completion to be overcoming Christians. The Great Comissary was the next C. If your Pentecost doesn't take effect in the field of Comissary it is not real. This is not Commission, but a joyful bringing together our possessions sharing. She said if our preachers talk money, money, money, it is because we have not the proper sense of stewardship and we can keep them from it by bringing in the offering. The Great Consummation she pictures as the second coming of Christ.

Miss White may not be licensed to preach but she has all the qualifications of a preacher with the most charming, persuading, pleading eloquence and it has indeed been a privilege to hear her.

Is there any such thing as "Spiritual Indigestion"? If so the entire Conference will have it for never have so many good things been crammed into one short Conference. Our prayer is that we may each not only partake freely of this spiritual feast but have the ability to share it with the members of our own Auxiliaries at home. Bother Harris closed with the benediction.

Afternoon

A plentiful and appetizing luncheon was prepared by the Presbyterian ladies but it had to be a case of "gibble, gobble get" such was the haste to get back to the final session. The Scripture and Prayer were given by Mrs. Collins. The Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Hatch introduced some of our Baby Life Members who have been started on the Missionary road, and gave in rhyme their heritage and ambition.

The hard worked Secretaries are termed the Builders of the Highway. They came with the Con-Cor-Sec., Mrs. Ledbetter, to tell of their year's work, and of the Sacrificial giving among many of our Auxiliaries.

As more delegates arrived yesterday morning, Mrs. Brown took the full count and there were 167 delegates and 69 visitors who registered and many attended who did not register.

New Orleans and DeRidder both extended invitations for the next Conference and 57 voted for DeRidder and 58 for New Orleans. Committee reports were given. Finance by Mrs. Martin; Constitution and By Laws by Mrs. Irvine; there were some changes in the By Laws and Standing Rules, some discussion and some amendments which will occur in the Year Book.

Mrs. Spinks gave the Record of Status of Women, Mrs. Sisson on Spiritual life. As Mrs. Crichlow and Mrs. Irvine were appointed at the mid term meeting to fill the place of Mrs. Queen and Mrs. Clarke who resigned, ballot was cast and they were regularly elected.

Mrs. Morris Adger read the Recommendations of Vice-Presidents; Mrs. Metcalf gave the Education and Promotion; Mrs. Grant on Finance Com.; Mrs. Crichlow on Children; Mrs. Fine on Literature and Publicity; Mrs. Hicks on Resolutions; Mrs. Irvine on Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Bradshaw on Bible and Mission Study; Supplies by Mrs. Moody; Rural work, Miss Ora Hooper. Mrs. Susie Lingle was made a Life Member by the Conference in token of her outstanding work in securing subscribers for the Outlook and her posters. A prayer by Dr. Scott concluded a wonderful conference.

Recording Secretary.

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

We come to Monroe this year for our annual meeting in no spirit of fear or pessimism but with a triumphant conviction that Christ is the answer to the worlds' need. Because of that conviction we pledge ourselves anew to sharing Him both here and abroad. I wonder if you've realized how fruitful our missionary work has been and how necessary it is for us to carry on in this new day. Because the Christian Church has been successful in making Jesus known to a large part of the world, because the pressure of the times has stopped our great building programs, and because our missionaries are facing greater problems in policy than ever before, many are questioning the value of mission work and missionary education. It's a day of questioning, of inquiry and appraisals; every great movement is being asked to prove itself and thank Heaven, our missionary enterprise can face the testing unashamed. There've been mistakes, of course, there've been some failures and misfits—there was one in the Lord's little group of twelve—new methods must be adopted for a changing world, but looking back over the years, one feels that our missionaries have truly been the leaven which slowly but surely is leavening the lump. Mr. F. W. Stevens who went to China as the American representative of the Banker's consortium with no knowledge of and no special sympathy for the missionary movement said in a public address in Peking, "I have come to believe that America's greatest contribution to China, greater even than American political friendship, is the work of the American Christian missionaries in China. In all China there is not a single organization on a scale of importance that aims at moral improvement or that is calculated to bring it about, that is not traceable in its origin to the Christian missionaries."

Our concept of the word Missions has changed. We no longer speak of "sending the gospel to the heathen." Ours is a larger task—we join with Christians around the world to fight those evils which are damning us all—ignorance, indifference, prejudice, greed, lawlessness, materialism, communism, war. I heard Mrs. Sibley one of the members of the Laymen's Commission who formulated the report, "Rethinking Missions", say that Christianity today is even joining forces with other religions in a desperate fight against no religion.

Many of us are realizing that America itself is a mission field, that it's a matter of question whether we're really a Christian nation, for Christianity is more than belief in a creed, it's living a life and we're still a long way from practicing the principles of Jesus either personally or nationally. Realization of this fact is driving our people to their knees.

One of the outstanding things in our work this year has been the emphasis on spiritual cultivation and the growth of prayer circles. Prayer means power. Mrs. R. F. Harrell, chairman of the Committee on Spiritual Life, attended the retreat held at Mt. Sequoyah and has shared with the Conference the spirit of that group. Results have been noticeable not only in growth of auiliaries and total membership, but in more consecrated lives and greater sacrifice in giving.

A special effort has been made also toward putting the "Miss in missionary" with the result that the number of young women's circles has increased fifty per cent. Opening up avenues of service to these young people who thrive on difficulties is your responsibility and mine.

It was a great privilege to attend Council this year and see those seven teen young lives consecrated to definite Christian service, two of them our own Louisiana girls, Verna Webster and Bessie Williams. May we not follow them with our earnest prayers as they complete this year at Scarritt and go out into fields of service.

Financially, we've had a hard year, yet we're not discouraged for interest and consecration are deepening. To New Orleans district goes the honor for most nearly equalling last year's payments 91.2%. Baton Rouge comes next with 86%, then Shreveport with 83%, and Ruston with 80%. The other four fell below the Conference average of 80%—Monroe and Minden each about 75%, Lake Charles 73%, and Alexandria 70%. Officers, Superintendents and District Secretaries have labored faithfully that our work should not suffer. They will give results, as far as they may be measured, in their individual reports, but I must thank them in your name for loyalty, faithfulness and a wonderful spirit of co-operation. They have helped to make my first year as your President a real joy.

While the total week of Prayer Offering this year was smaller than last, Louisiana Conference showed an increase of $169.70. We register thereby our appreciation to the Council for making MacDonell French Mission School the Home Special and await with eager interest the building of the new dormitory. Your Conference Secretary and I had a wonderful trip to Houma for the Board Meeting in February and came away feeling that Miss Hooper is truly a woman "sent from God". She will tell you of the fine work she is fostering for the Indians in that section.

A new and splendid undertaking for our Conference is the Assembly for Christian Workers to be held at Mansfield this summer, with the Sunday Schools, Laymen and Missionary Societies cooperating. Leaders of Methodism will come together for a season of fellowship and study which should strengthen Church forces all over the state.

We're facing today a time of stress, a testing time for all that we are and all that we believe in. We're being forced to give up the luxuries, to throw off the unessentials, to choose those things which mean the most in our lives. We can no longer support the Church and our missionary program from surpluses. Somehow we find both time and money to invest in those things in which we're most interested. Where the heart is, there will your treasure go, is also true, I think. Perhaps our gifts have to be smaller than formerly but the success of woman's work has been in making millions of the mites. The way out lies through small gifts from the many, making our membership co-extensive with the membership of the Church. This was one of the goals when the new financial plan was adopted, making the requirement for membership, giving of prayer, service, and an amount of money.

Never before in our lifetime have missionary societies and missionary work been more needed. Hearts are hungry for friendship and spiritual food. As Bishop Moore says, "Times are too hard for the Church to fail." People everywhere are groping for God and those of us who know Him and the power of His salvation must prove the world that He comes first in our lives.

MRS. GEORGE SEXTON, Jr.

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is indeed a marvelous opportunity God gives us to be so-laborers with him. I have profoundly appreciated the privilege of sharing the burdens and responsibilities in helping promote the interests of this conference.

There have been many opportunities for service. During the year I have attended six zone meetings, three District meetings, assisted in four officers' Training Classes, served on the program at five "Guest Day" meetings, and have taken an active part in my local auxiliary. Have written more than 500 letters in the interest of our work. Have received many letters from over our state concerning auxiliary matters, all of which have been answered promptly. As Chairman of the Standing Committee on Finance much of my time has been taken up with conference matters.

The appeal for Life membership has caught the ear of our membership and an earnest effort has been put forth by individuals, auxiliaries and zones to secure Life Members. For 1932 Roll, we have 14 adult Life Members and 18 babies. Total amount accruing from Life Memberships $440.00.

$72.00 was paid on our Mount Sequoyah debt, which amount more than paid the sum that was due.

Scarritt Maintenance fell short last year. Only 108 Auxiliaries paid their Scarritt Maintenance. Do we give enough publicity to Scarritt? Do our women understand the importance of this $4.00 Maintenance Fund?

Our Financial pledge was not met last year, but our spirit and interest have suffered no depression. We feel that our women experienced a greater decrease in living than they did in giving. Many of us lived on 50% less than usual, but our giving showed only a little more than a 25% decrease.

Due to the present Membership basis, many women have been able to continue their membership and give according to their ability in this time of depleted incomes, who might have withdrawn from our organization. It takes all sorts of women to make a Missionary Society, and the humblest, and materially speaking, the poorest in this fellowship may have the richest contribution to make. Furthermore, the same good qualities are not shared by all—neither are the faults.

Every interest of the Louisiana Conference will ever be to me a matter of affectionate and prayful concern and all its achievements the fulfillment of my deep and sincere wishes.

MRS. W. H. MARTIN,
Vice President.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE COMMITTEE OF VICE PRESIDENTS

1. That we have as a goal, every auxiliary paying the Scarritt Maintenance Fund of $4.00 per year.

2. That each Vice President remember that she is the President's assistant, and should be ever on the alert to help make the entire program challenging.

3. That individuals and auxiliaries be solicited for Life Memberships and Memorials, and to report same to Conference Vice President immediately.

4. That we make great effort to encourage our women to take advantage of the opportunity for study, information and inspiration offered at Mount Sequoyah and at Mansfield during the summer.

5. That Vice Presidents, in addition to the above named duties, be responsible for promotion of the general finances of the organization, by seeking an increase in all funds used in the support of our Connectional work, and that she should be a member of the Finance Committee.

MRS. W. H. MARTIN,
Chairman.
MRS. MORRIS ADGER,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF ORGANIZATION

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SECRETARY

When David said to King Araunah: "I will not offer unto my Lord that which doth cost me nothing," he established the principle and true spirit of sacrificial giving—not since our yesterdays have the women of Southern Methodism more nearly reached this ideal, giving as they have unto the Lord those offerings which have cost self denial that Missionary pledges might be redeemed—We count the sacrifice small when we reckon as our reward the abundance of blessings which we have received from God's "storehouse of wonder, hope and love".

Even with this sacrificial giving and the added contribution of prayer and service, we have fallen short ofour Conference Goal by 25%. We are not discouraged, because we do not reckon our unpaid financial obligations to mean a weakening of missionary motive —we have been faced with unprecedented needs; we have passed through days of unusual testing—and yet we can point to marked advances, and to our organization which remains intact.

The psychological basis of our new financial plan, generally operative this year for the first time, is the appeal it makes of "giving", as Bishop Dobbs says "to a great cause, rather than paying dues to an organization." The result of its effectiveness is measured in the 316 new Auxiliaries with 16,000 new members that have been reported to the Council Secretary.

The "Guest Month" plan greatly augmented our auxiliary rosters throughout the state, but when the last record was entered for 1932, we found that somewhere along the way, we had lost 635 members—let us be prayerfully mindful of our failure to hold these women and ever alert that our zeal may not waver—that our Missionary enthusiasm shall keep the spiritual glow.

Aside from the tangible results in membership, this fidelity to council plans, resulted in a period of real cultivation and fellowship. This increase in membership has small significance, unless it carries with it a pledge to larger service and larger giving. Mrs. Handy said at Council, "Let us keep our courage, our spirit and our pride in achievement; we are not poor and let us keep from an attitude of poverty."

We accord due recognition to our faithful District Secretaries, women of deep consecration, earnest purpose and proven loyalty, for gains in membership, additions of new auxiliaries, and a sustained interest in missionary objectives.

We acknowledge too, the valued assistance of the Zone Leaders in this extension work.

You will have the detailed review of the year's activities, but I wish to mention these noteworthy attainments:

Alexanderia District led in net gain in membership—Lake Charles was second—Ruston district led in organization and observance of week of Prayer.

Baton Rouge district led in Life Membership—four adults, one baby.

Shreveport district led in the number of missions and Bible study classes and subscribers to "World Outlook."

Antioch Auiliary Ruston district led in average age contest.

New Orleans district came nearer paying as much in 1932 as in 1931.

The Young Women's Circles under Mrs. Power's supervision have increased from 20 to 32 with a membership of 559. We welcome them into the fellowship of the missionary society—we need their fresh vigor, their unspent years, their spirit of courage and adventure. To them we look for leadership in the tomorrows, but a leadership that must be directed and trained, and we of the "middle years" owe to them the example and precept of consecration, stability and sobriety.

Our Conference Institutions, St. Marks' Hall at New Orleans, MacDonell Wesley House at Houma, Jubilee Inn at Shreveport have felt the force of the drastic cuts that have been made necessary by reduced income, but in the face of the impossible, are carrying on and blessings continue.

"The purpose of an institution is not to give a chance to church people to work, but to supply the need of a special community," and these institutions are meeting this requirement and functioning as adequately as is possible under existing handicaps.

Now that the Week of Prayer offering is available, a sum of a little in excess of $20,000, plans for the girls' dormitory at Houma will be perfected and work begun immediately.

Again we are reminded of our debt of gratitude to our former Conference Secretary, the beloved Mrs. Carré, who worked so untiringly for the allocation of this special offering to Houma.

The Indian Mission School at Du Lac is the newest venture Miss Hooper has sponsored and with the help of the deaconesses at Houma and the unrequited services of Mrs. De Forest and Miss Wilhelmina Hooper, she has successfully conducted this school since October.

Last year, Shiela Nuttall was graduated from Scarritt on the scholarship supported by the Gleaners of First Church, Shreveport, and was assigned to deaconess work at Houma.

This year Bessie Williams, beneficiary of the Haas Endowment scholarship, and Lena Webster of Shreveport, beneficiary of the Gleaners' scholarship were consecrated at the recent Council meeting and will be graduated in June.

There are at present no other Louisiana girls in training at Scarritt.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND PROMOTION

We, the Committee on Education and Promotion present the following recommendations:

1. That special emphasis be placed upon our quarterly events:
   (a) First Quarter, Officers Training Day.
   (b) Second Quarter, Enlistment Campaign.
   (c) Third Quarter, Coaching Day for Mission Study Leadership.
   (d) Fourth Quarter, Week of Prayer and Harvest Day.

2. That we commit ourselves to the plan made for the enlistment and cultivation of Young Women's Circles in each auxiliary. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the value of their service, and a recognition of their leadership in the work of the auxiliary.

3. That each auxiliary make a greater effort to carry out the plan and spirit of the Week of Prayer.

4. That minutes of the Conference be made a special study at the first meeting in each auxiliary after the distribution of the Minutes.

5. That we keep before our women the need of the Council work and the necessity for securing regular payments of all funds as a means of financing our work.

6. That in the second quarter we make a special effort to supplement our Conference pledge by auxiliaries cooperating with their Vice Presidents in securing Life Membesrhips.

7. That the enlistment effort for the second quarter take the form of a Fellowship Luncheon given by each auxiliary, with a program presented for the occasion.

8. That the dates of our leadership schools, Sequoyah, July 27 to August 10, Junaluska from August 3 to 15, Mansfield, June 26 to July 1, be given publicity in our Annual Meetings and through all other possible channels; also the Pastors' schools through which leadership courses may be obtained for our Mission Study Leaders, and that wherever possible financial provision be made for sending Mission Study Superintendents and Mission Study Class Teachers to these schools.

9. That we encourage auxiliaries to participate in the Bible classes given in the Standard Training Schools conducted by the Board of Christian Education in their churches or districts. That wherever as many as six members of the same auxiliary take the course for credit, that Society be given credit toward the Standard of Excellence for Bible study.

10. That each auxiliary president shall direct the careful execution of Council and conference plans, as outlined in the annual minutes and the new Adult 1933 Handbook; see that each officer has a handbook for her office. She shall make every effort to have all departments organized, and bring her auxiliary up to the requirements of the Standard of Excellence.

11. Auxiliaries shall have the election of officers in November and send list of same to District Secretary at once. Public installation of officers shall be held in January, so that the officers shall take up their work January 1st.

12. That the first meeting of the year shall be observed as Stewardship Day or Pledge Day, and definite pledges made by each member on cards provided by the Council. Corresponding Secretary shall order same from Literature Headquarters, 706 Church Street, Nashville, and have one for each member of auxiliary, at this meeting.

13. That quarterly executive meetings shall be held for the purpose of planning the work, and for comparing and completing all reports before they are sent to their respective Conference officers.

MRS. W. M. LDBETTER,
Chairman.
MRS. D. C. METCALF,
Secretary.

As a District, I really believe we have accepted the challenge of the age, that is, trying to be a true follower of Jesus, by consecration, prayer, and a willingness to share. The response sent out by any call in the District, is most gratifying, revealing the interest in the work and the desire to unite forces against the evil one.

The Zone Leaders have proven themselvs worthy of the task assigned them and held throughout the year some very inspirational meetings, using the talent from the respective Zones to a great extent.

Two District-wide Meetings have been held since last Conference. District Meeting at Amite and Officers Training Day at First Church, Baton Rouge. Our District was well attended, the program rendered by the Women of the District, gaving inspiration and information to all present. Officers Training, with Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. Ledbetter as our guests, proved worthy of its name. About one hundred were present, representing 14 Auxiliaries. Each returned to their respective Auxiliaries full of Enthusiasm and a determination to carry out the program of work.

A Retreat at Bluff Creek Assembly Ground, just previous to our Young Peoples Annual Meeting with seven representatives, was indeed a wonderful spiritual feast for those in attendance. It was decided to have a Retreat Annually.

Spiritual Life Groups have been appointed in several Auxiliaries and they are really helping our women to a higher plane of living. Our goal for 1933 is, "A Group In Each Auxiliary Functioning."

District Secretary.

Our work throughout the District has been constructive as well as educational. One outstanding feature is our Negro zone work, organized in May last year, and we held two fine zone meetings. Those present declared them to be Spiritual, Educational, and indeed Inspirational. The meetings were held in Trout and Winnfield. We find the colored people to be so appreciative of our interest in them, and they are doing good work.

We held two fine District Conferences, one at Ringgold, and one at Jena. Quite a few of our conference officers were present at each meeting, and added much to our program. The lecture on prohibition, by Sheriff Downs, of Alexandria, was greatly enjoyed by all, which shows that we were fighting the liquor traffic before November the Eighth, 1932.

We have had splendid cooperation throughout the year. We have reorganized at Chalmette Church with 10 or more women endeavoring to carry out the work; also at Golden Meadow, with five members, who are ready to give 25 cents a month out of their meager income.

The five Zone leaders have been very helpful in carrying on the work.

We have paid $3,824.63 of our $4,000.00 pledge, leaving only $175.37 unpaid, which I think shows the loyalty and true missionary spirit of our women.

Adult Life Membership, 2.

Children's Life Membership, 1.

I must tell you about three little auxiliaries in the French Zone. Each have seven members which pledge 25 cents each per month making a total of $21.00 a year. These women have to sometime bring eggs to pay their dues and when eggs sell at 10 cents a dozen they have to bring two and a half dozen to pay their pledge.

Ninety per cent of the auxiliaries have spiritual life groups and

I see in the women a longing for an inner cleansing of their own soul and a going back to God in our Nation.

May God hear the prayers of his children.

District Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF FINANCE COMMITTEE

That in this time of financial stress, we should be drawn closer to our Lord and give as He has given us. Therefore we recommend:

1. That we still urge each Auiliary to pay the Scarrit Maintenance Fund of $4.00.

2. That great prominence be given Life Membership.

3. That we conform to Council Ruling and include all women who make an offering and report Freewell Offering, which includes Dues and Pledge.

4. That the Budget basis for Conference be $31,500.00. Prorated as follows:

Alexandria—$2,250.00
Baton Rouge—$3,250.00
Lake Charles—$2,000.00
Minden—$2,500.00
Monroe—$4,250.00
New Orleans—$4,000.00
Ruston—$3,500.00
Shreveport—$8,000.00

MRS. C. C. CARVER,
Chairman.
MRS. O. E. Grant,
Secretary.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE

The members of this Committee have been very diligent in studying conference matters as they related to finances and the findings have been brought to the Eecutive Committee for consideration.

While it has not been possible to have more than one committee meeting since last conference, the work of the committee has been carried on by correspondence.

We paid 75% of our pledge to Council, but we feel the amount represents more work and sacrifice than that given in normal years.

We trust that emphasis will be put on Christian Stewardship during the year and that a new sense of obligation for larger giving of time, talents, and money may come upon us as Christians.

We wish to caution auxiliaries against appropriating for any other purpose any part of the money contributed for connectional work of the Woman's Missionary Society.

We urge that at district and zone meetings the financial goal of the conference be stressed and every woman of the church be given an opportunity to contribute.

At mid-year Executive it was deemed best to reduce our Council pledge.

It is not so easy to work on a decreasing budget, but let us feel that if there must be less money, there shall be more service, more prayer, more work, more women attending, studying, praying, paying.

It is so easy to put responsibility off on God. "Lord, if you will," said the suppliant, but Jesus answers, "Not if I will, but if you can." Lord, send us out to do a real year's work for Thee and the missionary cause.

Mrs. W. H. Martin, Chairman,
Mrs. Carolyn Dawson,
Mrs. S. M. Collins,
Mrs. C. C. Carver,
Mrs. Wiltz Ledbetter.

REPORT OF AUDITOR

Mrs. George Sexton, Jr., President
Woman's Home Missionary Society,
Louisiana Conference, Shreveport, La.

DEAR MADAM:

Complying with your request of January 26, 1933 ,I have made a detailed audit of the books and records of your Treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Carver, Rayne, Louisiana, for the period from January 15, 1932 to January 15, 1933. All receipts and disbursements are properly accounted for and the records are in excellent condition.

Your Society owns a Certificate of Stock No. 258, for $465.00, in the Rayne Building and Loan Association, to which there has been added $90.52 as of December 31, 1932.

Should there be any additional information you desire, please communicate with me.

Assuring you that it has been a pleasure to serve your society, I remain,

Very truly yours,

R. H. AGATE.

Public Accountant Registered with the State Board of Certified Public Accountants under Certificate No. 127.

YOUNG WOMAN'S ORGANIZATION

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

In bringing my report to you I want to say first that I consider it a great privilege to serve as secretary of your Young Women's Circles. I want to thank you for your loyalty and cooperation the past year. You have made possible the growth of our young women's work. While we did not reach the goal set, (a circle in each auxiliary) we have gone forward. We do not count in terms of numbers, but think of the work accomplished for our Master.

Most all circles report both Bible and Mission Study Classes. It was my good fortune to attend one of the Mission Study classes in Alexandria, and it was an inspiration to me to see the interest these young women took in their study. Even the snow and cold didn't keep them away from class, as they had more than the average attendance required in order to receive Council credit.

Hammond, while only a small circle, has been very active. They have been thinking of our Mission School at Houma, and sent Miss Hooper a dozen table cloths.

The young women circles are responsible for two life members last year. The Alexandria circle made Mrs. Amelia Evans, for whom their circle is named, a life member, and the circles of the State made your Conference Secretary of Young Women's Work a life member, which is appreciated more than mere words can express.

Last year at Conference I reported 20 circles with a membership of 344. This year we have 35 circles with a membership of 615, an increase of 15 circles and 271 new members. There are 46 subscribers to the World Outlook.

The following auxiliaries have circles.

Alexandria, Natchitoches, Oakdale, Pineville, Franklinton, Amite, Hammond, Bogalusa, Crowley, Many, Vinton, DeRidder, Leesville, Coushatta, Minden, Grayson, Monroe (two circles), West Monroe, Tallulah, Winnsboro, Bastrop, Columbia, New Orleans First Church, Slidell, New Orleans Rayne Memorial, Arcadia, Homer, Shreveport First Church (two circles), Shreveport Mangum Memorial, Shreveport Noel Memorial, Vivian, Bossier City, and Greenwood.

We are to work along the same lines as before keeping in mind that the young women whom we enlist are really members of the society as individuals having part in the work of the society as a whole.

It has been suggested by our Council Officer Mrs. Lipscomb, that our young women remain in circles not longer than a period of two years, by that time they should be so familiar with the work that they would find themselves at home in any circle of the society. Of course there are exceptions, as those who work cannot meet with the society in the afternoons, so may have to remain longer in these circles.

Let me urge every society that has not already done so to get busy and organize the young women of your church. This is a blessed privilege we have of helping to train our young women for Christian service. It is also our responsibility, and the future of our work depends largely on how we meet this responsibility.

Faithfully yours,

MRS. H. J. POWERS,
Secretary, Young Women's Circles.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1932

In the beginning of this Conference year, March 1932, our Children's Division was fortunate in having Mrs. M. B. Queen as Superintendent. Her letters to me have been most helpful and she reports visiting four district meetings in the interest of the Children's Work.

To date I have written 120 post cards, 326 letters, sent Quarter ending March 31 (few packages in previous Quarter) 96 packages of literature, and in past five days for new Quarter 100 packages of literature.

Requests for literature come from various Auxiliaries but few report work done when Quarter ends. This cuts our report to council far below the number receiving literature as I can only report the number sending me the Quarterly report. Hence the discrepancy in amount of literature sent and number of Boys and Girls World Clubs and World Circles reported.

My report for Dec. 31 to Council shows—

Baby Divisions	33
World Circle or Primary Divisions	26
Boys and Girls World Clubs or Juniors Divisions	29

There are seven World Circle groups on the Honor Roll and eleven Boys and Girls World Clubs on this Roll.

Beginning with the first of the year, January, all clubs and Circles reporting late will not be on Honor Roll. Reports must reach me by the fifth of month following close of Quarter to be on time.

Parents Clubs or classes should be the main work for the Baby Division aside from enrolling the Babies. Please write me for outlines or suggestions for forming and conducting these classes.

Quarterlies and other material furnished free for Primary and Junior Diviisons will be sent all Superintendents reporting work. We have been very lenient with this material but Auxiliaries not reporting will be dropped from the mailing list. We must not waste material and those not using same will be left out.

Other material will be listed from time to time in Louisiana News and Council Bulletin. Your President should see that you have a copy of each of these monthly.

Lists of books to read both for children and Superintendents will be furnished on request from either Miss Rumbough or myself.

MRS. R. S. CRICHLOW,
Superintendent.

DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE AND PUBLICITY

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

The past year with its many duties in the department of Literature and Publicity has meant much to me, for with the duties have come many blessings. The contact with the women over the Conference and the co-operation of many loyal superintendents of publicity has been most inspirational. To work with Mrs. Cunningham has been indeed a privilege, and throughout the year she has meant more to me than I can tell you, with her helpful suggestions and words of encouragement.

Each month approximately 1,000 copies of the Louisiana News and Missionary Bulletin have been mailed—each Quarter 1,715 program leaflets, including letters from Council officers. During the year 225 copies of the Council minutes, 210 year books and 3,000 leaflets for the Week of Prayer program were sent out. Every letter requesting information has been answered, and much extra material mailed. Total cost of mailing for the year, $92.81.

As World Outlook agents we are charged with representing officially the world's finest Christian journal. That many of our agents appreciate the bigness of this opportunity was shown last year by the attractive posters and other effective plans used to promote the World Outlook. I wish to call special attention to the posters made by the Circles of First Church of Shreveport under the direction of Mrs. Lingle. These instructive posters have been shown at a number of meetings, creating much interest and enthusiasm. By special request they were displayed at Council. That much remains to be done for the promotion of the World Outlook will be readily seen when I tell you that we have over 5,000 members of the Missionary Society in the Louisiana Conference and only 951 subscribers for World Outlook.

The price is less than two cents a week. Can you afford to miss the information and inspiration that the World Outlook will bring to your home each month for this small sum?

At the Annual meeting last year the Committee on Literature and Publicity recommended that a scrapbook of local publicity be kept by the Superintendent of Publicity as a means of recording history and disseminating missionary news. These books made by the following auxiliaries: Monroe—First Church; Minden, Homer, Leesville, Rochelle, Arcadia, Baton Rouge—First Church may be seen with publicity display.

An important duty of the superintendent of publicity is sending a quarterly report to the Conference Superintendent. This report is the only way by which we can tell if you receive the literature, if it meets the needs of your auxiliary and of any methods used to present your work to the auxiliary.

210 auxiliaries are listed on my mailing list, and last year 104 did not report at all.

In auxiliaries reporting Minden District leads with 69% reporting sometime during the year, and the following reporting each quarter: Alden Bridge, Benton, Coushatta, East Point, Heflin, Jonesville, Minden, Rochelle and Springhill.

LAKE CHARLES DISTRICT —58% reported during year and each quarter Deridder, Lucky Grve, Merryville and Leesville.

SHREVEPORT DISTRICT —54% reported during year; reporting each quarter Harmon, Mansfield, Pelican, Vivian Noel Memorial.

RUSTON DISTRICT —50% reported during year; reporting each quarter Hodge, Homer, Jonesboro, Saem, Arcadia, Summerfield.

MONROE DISTRICT —46% reported during year; reporting each quarter Baskin, Buckner, Columbia, Monroe First Church, West Monroe.

ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT —44% reported during year; reporting each quarter Boyce, Bunkie, Alexandria—First Church; Pineville, Oberlin, Natchitoches, Glenmora.

BATON ROUGE DISTRICT —40% reported during year; reporting each quarter Amite, Baton Rouge First Church, Jackson, New Hope, St. Francisville.

NEW ORLEANS DISTRICT—39% reported during year; reporting each quarter Algiers, New Orleans First Church, St. Marks, Carrollton Avenue and Covington.

May it be that the Superintendent of publicity throughout the Louisiana Conference, in accepting their responsibilities for this year, have found the place where God can best use them to carry on His work.

Let us remember as we seek to share in the extension of the Kingdom that the measure of success is not in the largeness of results, as outwardly evident, but in faithfulness to the one task given us to do.

MRS. W. E. FINE,
Supt. Literature and Publicity.

COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE AND PUBLICITY

We, the Committee on Literature and Publicity, submit the following recommendations:

WHEREAS, the Woman's Missionary Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, realizes the value of "The World Outlook" to the entire church as a medium for disseminating missionary information and cultivating spiritual growth, and

WHEREAS, the magazine, both because of its content and its artistic arrangement, merits the enthusiastic support of every Methodist family, and since there is great need at this time for united effort to counteract the falling off in subscriptions,

BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That World Outlook Agents be commended for and asked to continue their splendid efforts in its behalf, and

(2) That pastors be requested to present The Outlook as a Missionary publication of the church, rather than a magazine devoted to women's work.

(3) In view of the intrinsic value of the program leaflets for reference and as an aid to an understanding of the scope and needs of the Missionary work, your Committee recommends that each Auxiliary keep a complete and permanent file of all leaflets, program materials and The World Outlook for future use by the society.

(4) That each auxiliary give more prominence to the Publicity Department and in this way bring to the auxiliary much needed strength by way of inspiration and information.

(5) That a greater effort be made to have each auxiliary Superintendent study Handbook, and to send quarterly reports to your Conference Superintendent.

(6) That a scrap book of local publicity be kept by the Superintendent of Literature and Publicity, as a means of recording history and disseminating missionary news, and that these books be brought to Annual meeting for display.

(7) That accounts of your weekly meetings be sent to your newspaper and that they bear missionary messages instead of merely social affairs.

(8) That accounts of all District meetings, and all outstanding auxiliary meetings, reports and plans from all departments of work, and personal messages from all Conference members, be sent to the Louisiana Missionary News as soon as available.

MRS. W. E. FINE,
Chairman.

MRS. R. R. BRANCH,
Secretary.

REPORT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS WORK FOR 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD QUARTERS

October 21, 1932.

To the Officers and Members of the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY,
LOUISIANA CONFERENCE,
M. E. CHURCH SOUTH:

I have sent out all literature sent me by Mrs. Newell, Council Supt., C. S. R. I have sent in quarterly reports and I have answered every inquiry coming to me.

I find few doing much for immigrants— a few held classes—especially in New Orleans—St. Marks.

Quite a few societies are cooperating with federation of women's societies—Red Cross—Salvation Army, etc. A part of above mentioned work with Negroes has been through Federated Societies of W. M. S. Our own little City furnished last school year, 8,395 lunches to school children.

I feel our women have such a big responsibility in directing the vote in November. I wish I could command the words to express my feeling—and the knowledge to carry out my desire along this horrid thing known as "repeal." We as christian women need never let it rest, but ever be praying and doing what we can.

With a prayer in my heart that we as Christian Social Relations Superintendents have and will accomplish in His name, the work He left with us when He went unto His Father, I submit this report.

MRS. LONNIE CLARK,
Supt. Christian S. Relations.

The fourth quarter's report is much the same as the first three. Our new form of organization gives us a more definite realization of our responsibility of a unified effort to christianize ourselves, our community, and the citizens of our Nation. There is a more determined effort to bring our customs, our social habits, our ways of thinking of people, our relations in every walk of life under the dominion of Christ's law of love.

In our new name we have a consciousness of an unseen power and a definite service in which each woman can share. We are investigating social questions in an effort to bring about the necessary reform and co-operation with welfare movements in the community, state and nation. All this requires the effort of consecrated active minded women who are willing to withstand criticism and adventure in paths new to them.

The quarterly messages from our Council Superintendent are the most direct means we have for enlisting the co-operation of the women of the auxiliaries in projects that are selected both for their importance out of the many that press us for attention and as projects in which the auxiliary women can share. Nearly all the reports show a response to these messages in the form of petitions to Senators, Representatives and the President.

Every woman is a steward, not only for her influence for Civic righteousness, but for her vote. There are so many reasons that should impel and compel, and no doubt the responsibility for observance and enforcement of law does devolve wholly or nearly so upon Christian women. The interracial groups express sympathetic contact with the Negro women, the Negro home and family in the South have been of particular interest to Southern women, and a new day is dawning which is calculated to bring a better understanding and co-operation between the races.

Every Southern State has a Council for the prevention of lynching, the purpose of which is primarily to create a larger respect for law. We are asked to pledge ourselves to arouse public opinion to the meance of the crime of lynching by educating the youth of our own communities to an understanding of the consequences of such lawless acts .

MRS. ROBERT W. IRVINE.

RESOLUTION OF LAKE CHARLES GLEANERS

Inasmuch as the Christian Social Relations Committee of the Gleaners Missionary Society of Lake Charles has been conducting a study of the breakdown in labor standards, with its effect on the women of our nation, we have felt and accepted the responsibility of helping these, our sisters. It is impossible for one or two societies to do very much, so we wish to present the following resolutions:

RESOLVED:

1. That a message be sent by the Louisiana Conference to Miss Perkins, in Washington (Secretary of Labor), assuring her of our support in righting the labor conditions caused by sweat shops and gypsy industries.

2. That efforts be made to create a feeling in our State against purchasing sweat shop and Gypsy Industries articles, by informing ourselves of true conditions.

3. That copies of these resolutions be sent to Miss Perkins, in Washington; to Mrs. W. A. Newell, Council Superintendent of Christion Social Relations, and a copy be put in the Minutes of the Louisiana Conference.

MRS. A. M. MUTERSBAUGH,
Chairman.

JULIA REID,
Secretary.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Whereas a resolution was adopted by the Parent-Teacher Association on March 25th, 1933, in district convention assembled at Kaplan, Louisiana, and

Whereas this organization is dedicated to the purpose of furthering child welfare and is therefore deeply interested in the Public School System of the State, and

Whereas the schools throughout the State of Louisiana have been severely handicapped during the year 1932-33 because of shortage of funds, and

Whereas in many instances it has been necessary to shorten school terms, or to fail to pay teachers salaries, all to the impairment of the efficiency of the Schools, and

Whereas in order to assure the schools of the State of a definite income sufficient to enable them to function properly and normally, it is necessary that special funds derived from special taxes be dedicated to the schools and placed in sacred and special funds separate and distinct from the general funds of the State,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in conference at Monroe, Louisiana, April 11-12, endorse a similar resolution and direct our legislative committee to take proper steps to place before the legislative authorities the need for such legislation and urge its passage at the earliest possible opportunity.

DEPARTMENT OF BIBLE AND MISSION STUDY

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT MISSION AND BIBLE STUDY

Number of Mission Study Classes Reported 234
Number of Members in Mission Study Classes 4009
Number of Bible Study Classes Reported 156
Number of Members in Bible Study Classes 4034
Number of Mission Classes Receiving Council Certificates..... 61

As we come to the end of our Conference year and pause to look back, we are grateful to God for what has been done; for those who have been faithful in the study of His word and those who have tried to learn of the Needs of Mankind from our Mission books.

However, when we look at our statistical report there seems to be reason for discouragement but we are not discouraged for we know numbers do not mean everything. There has been much progress shown by the fact that our classes are really Study Classes.

Now in this new year let us exert every effort to enlist all the women of the church in definite Mission and Bible study for without knowledge little progress will be made .

MRS. F. H. BRADSHAW,
Conference Superintendent,
Mission and Bible Study.

COMMITTEE ON STUDY

RECOMMENDS:

1. That we try to enlist every woman in the church in our Missionary and Bible study classes.

2. That each Auxiliary Superintendent of Mission and Bible Study make her selections of books from the lists recommended by Council.

3. That each Auxiliary plan its Mission Study Course as follows:

(a) The book recommended by Council for fall study.

(b) Where possible, the course given by the pastor in the winter Church Schools of Missions.

4. That every Auxiliary send her Mission and Bible study Leader to Mansfield, June 26 to July 1 for the Summer Conference.

5. That we attempt to arouse interest and encourage attendance upon the Summer School of Missions at Mt. Sequoyah.

6. That we assist in every way with the study classes for our Young Women's Circles.

7. That the District Secretaries give special recognition at their District meetings to those auxiliaries receiving a Council certificate in Mission Study.

8. That we strive to have our classes receive 10 points or credits on the Standard of Excellence by observing the following rules:

(a) Bible Study class in which text recommended by Council is used—5 credits.

(b) Two Mission Study Classes, books recommended by Council—10 credits.

9. That the Elective Sunday School Course for the second quarter and fourth quarter of 1933 and the first quarter of 1934 be an accredited Bible Study Course for the Woman's Missionary Society.

MRS. F. H. BRADSHAW,
Chairman.

MRS. A. A. KIDD,

McDonell French Mission School	300	$1,983.66
St. Marks Community Center	140	954.72
Jubilee Inn	14	50.00
Calegio Irene Toland Mantanza, Cuba	1
Moore Community Center Biloxi, Miss.	1	27.50
	456	$3,015.88

The donations to Mantanza, Cuba, and Biloxi, Miss., were made by the Carrollton Ave. Auxiliary.

Houma Day was observed by ten Auxiliaries.

In the beginning may I say this has been a year of great things to me in our work of joyous service.

Our figures are not as large as they were in 1931 but we will not be discouraged over that for God doesn't judge our service in dollars and cents. We know by reports we have reecived that love, prayer, and sacrifice have gone into our gifts.

Think of the numbers of French and Indian mothers in our State, who do not know Jesus. We can't go but our gifts will help Miss Hooper and her workers.

The same is true of Miss Stroup as she goes here and there, ministering as Jesus did to those in need, helping to salvage broken lives.

Missionary women, everywhere, as I have received reports this quarter, I have wept for joy. So many have not cut down on their gifts to our work!

I have a special plea I want to make to smaller Auiliaries. Please don't say, "Well, what we have to send is so small, that it wouldn't help any, so we won't bother about it." Let me beg you to send it if its just 25 cents worth. It will help and you will get joy out of giving it. Remember the widow's mite.

Our work will go forward only as we let God have His way in our lives.

MRS. WOODARD,
Superintendent.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON SUPPLIES

WE RECOMMEND:

That our goal for the year 1933 be: Each Auxiliary having a direct personal share in the Missionary work of the State, by contributing supplies to St. Marks community center in New Orleans, and to MacDonnell French Mission School and Wesley House in Houma, and that all Auxiliaries be privileged to send supplies to Scarritt.

That Auxiliaries within reasonable distance of Jubilee Inn, a co-operative Home for business girls in Shreveport, contribute food supplies to that institution.

That the Conference Superintendent of Supplies send letters of instruction quarterly to the Auxiliaries giving the needs of the institutions.

That cash donations be sent in every case where possible, remembering that our institutions can buy wholesale and at great savings. When boxes are sent, that the Auxiliary Superintendents of Supplies see that the contents are in good condition, and well packed; that the boxes are plainly marked with name of Auxiliary, name and address of addressee, and that the value of box be given institution and to Conference Superintendent of Supplies.

That every Auxiliary send something every quarter; if amount is small, it will help for the need is so great.

MRS. A. E. WOODARD,
Chairman.
ELLA K. HOOPER,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF RURAL WORK

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

In this changing world in which we are living, we are learning that rural life is changing far more rapidly than is the life of the city.

Since about the year 1925, means of communication and transportation have become so wide spread and revolutionary that, we are finding an entirely new rural world. Isolation is a thing of the past. Hard surfaced roads, motor transportation routes by highway and air, and the radio, have all played a part in the changed condition.

The rural church is yet dazed and poorly prepared to cope with this new situation and it must be organized into an effective, working institution if it will properly meet the challenge of the new day.

The two most pressing needs of the rural church today are adequate equipment and trained workers. In the way of the former we as missionary women have practically done nothing. In the latter, we have been able to do our bit.

For the past six years the Womans Missionary Society of the Louisiana Conference has supplied a trained worker for rural fields.

For the last year and four months Miss Ora Hooper has spent her time in the Alexandria District, with headquarters at Port Bane. Miss Ora has reported to me regularly each month and to the best of my ability I have kept up with her work, suggesting changes as the occassions have demanded and conferring with her frequently. Her report will follow mine and will speak for itself.

MRS. J. B. POLLARD,
Supt. of Rural Work

RURAL WORK IN LOUISIANA

"Do what you can with what you have where you are today," is more appropriate today than ever before because the church is truly handicapped in the rural communities.

The Chevrolet, which is my assistant, has had a very busy year taking me to thirty-eight of the forty-eight rural churches in this district. Missionary Auxiliaries, young peoples unions, and world circles of boys and girls were organized and supervised. Seven vacation Bible schools were conducted in the district with my assistance.

Report of work done during the year was given at annual conferences, district conferences and zone meetings. Bible and mission study classes were taught, a pulpit was filled for one preacher, communities were surveyed and assisted with whatever work was deemed important, visits were given to sick and distressed to give relief, much Christian literature was distributed, and personal evangelistic work was done. Souls were enriched and saved as well as nourished to larger growth.

Friendships have been made worldwide and God's kingdom advanced in world peace. The aim of all work has been to develop the four fold life as expressed in Luke 2:52.

ORA HOOPER.

COMMITTEE ON RURAL WORK

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That Missionary women, as members of local congregations, work toward a consolidation of small churches in over-churched areas, whenever practicable, adopting the standard agreed upon, namely, one active Protestant Church with a full-time resident pastor, for every 1,000 inhabitants of one race and speaking a common language.

2. That in each district a rural committee, composed of the District Secretary, Zone Leaders and Zone Gibson Superintendents, be established to cooperate with the pastors in putting on an adequate program to meet the needs of all ages in the church. The Committee to meet at least once a year.

3. That Zone meetings be held quarterly with the exception of the second quarter. If fifty percent of the Auxiliaries in the zone are present at the district meeting, it is counted as a zone meeting.

5. That each town or city missionary society, through the leadership of its Superintendent of Christian Social Relations, seek to find and adopt a rural missionary society as a sister society, and to work out a program of mutual helpfulness.

6. That rural churches put forth every effort possible to have Vacation Bible Schools in their communities.

7. That a collection be taken at each zone meeting to defray expense and the balance sent to Mrs. Carver for the rural work. Zone Leaders keep expenses as low as possible.

8. Let one Zone program use material on anti-lynching.

9. That one zone goal be a new auxiliary in each zone.

10. That Conference Superintendents of Christian Social Relations be asked to cooperate with the Rural Department of Conference in carrying on this year a special survey of rural missionary societies on circuits, and to see that the plan is presented at district, zone and conference meetings.

11. That each rural missionary society, under the leadership of its Superintendent of Christian Social Relations, make a special study to seek and discover ways by which its society may best serve its community.

12. That each District seek to develop a circulating library on rural work, and exchange study books.

13. That Circuit societies cooperate in the distribution of clothes for relief.

14. That rural auxiliaries study Negro schools, and give all of the assistance possible in this direction.

DEPORTMENT OF SPIRITUAL LIFE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL LIFE AND MESSAGE

There has been a slow but steady growth in the work during the past year. We feel that there is a better understanding of the real purpose in the work, and the women are grasping the responsibilities of greater spiritual resources.

We divided the conference into sections and assigned to members of the committee, feeling that a closer supervision could be given to the work, and definite help rendered. We have presented the work at annual, district and zone meetings; have also used the rack. We feel that the demonstration of the rack at zone meetings has been instrumental in introducing the spiritual life pamphlet in some auxiliaries where they would otherwise not have gone.

We have distributed, free of charge, four dozen copies of "Suggestions for Spiritual Life Groups"; have sent to every group in conference a copy of "How May Spiritual Life Groups Serve?"; and have urged the use of "Prayer and Missions."

It is not possible to list all the things which have been accomplished through the groups, because many have failed to report what they have done. In one church a member of a spiritual life group, after she had lost her husband, dedicated a room in her home as a prayer room. Every Wednesday morning it is filled with people of different faiths—all finding peace and joy in its hallowed atmosphere.

One group met at sunrise to pray for the success of the Week of Prayer. Many groups are praying for the unemployed and securing work for them. Churches are being revived and attendance increased; revivals helped and many changed lives as a result of definite prayer.

Early in July we attended the Retreat held at Mt. Sequoyah. Mrs. Marguerite Harmon, Bro. and Dr. Lavens Thomas were the able leaders. The theme for discussion and meditation was Creative Prayer in personal life, in the local church, in the social order and in missions. It was an experience that thrilled to the very depths of one's soul, and caused such heart searchings as made us realize the tremendous responsibility resting upon us to help change things that are wrong.

"God is actually seeking and urging us to join with him in the enterprise of making a new world." To do this we are going to have to learn the art of companioning with God through Jesus Christ. With this transfrming power will come the realization that "In him that strengthenth me I am able for anything."

MRS. R. F. HARRELL.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF SPIRITUAL LIFE AND MESSAGE COMMITTEE

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That an all-day Retreat be held in each district during the year. Date and plans to be left to the district secretary.

2. A more extensive use of the leaflet, "How May Spiritual Life Group Serve?," the booklet on "Suggestions for Spiritual Life Groups," use of book racks for sale of Spiritual Life pamphlets, and use of the leaflet, "Prayer and Missions."

3. (a) That family altars be stressed in District, Zone and Auxiliary meetings.

(b) That "The Book of Daily Devotions" be used as a guide in these worship periods.

MRS. R. F. HARRELL,
Chairman.
MRS. W. E. SISSON,
Secretary.

STATUS OF WOMEN

The Council Status Committee has majored this last year on two phases of the question of woman's place in the church. First, to create an interest in larger representation of women in plan and palicy making bodies, on committees ,commissions, boards and conferences, including General Conference and the church at large. There are two aspects of this question of woman representation in appropriate and proportionate numbers. One is to help men think in terms of men and women when they appoint or elect members for such places. Except in those places where constitutions provide that a certain number be women, which number in our church is always a minority, voting and appointing groups are composed largely of men.

The major task set by the council committee is to cultivate the idea and secure ordination of women in the Methodist Episcopal Church South on the same basis as men are ordained. A campaign of publicity along this line has already been started in which eleven conference organs are co-operating.

Outside of an Episcopal decision of 1896 and which cites no Methodist law for its support, there is not a line in the Methodist discipline to prevent a woman from being licensed to preach by a district conference; not a line to prevent an annual conference from electing a woman to elder's orders and a bishop from ordaining her, or a General conference from electing and consecrating a woman as a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The Status Quo of women in our church is a matter not of specific law, but of misapprehensin, misinterpretation and administration determined in the main by inherited prejudices, traditions, precedent and masculne interpretations.

Personally we may not want ordination. I doubt if there is a woman in the Louisiana Conference, deaconesses not excepted, who does want it. Certainly we do not aspire to be Presiding Elders or Bishops. Yet there are women in southern Methodism who do want ordination because through it the way would be opened to an enlarged field of service for the Master.

Jesus made no distinction in sex. He placed no limitations on the path of service, and neither should we. But because this is practically a new idea, born of the need of the new day, it is going to mean the revision of our thinking—the cultivation of not only the men but of ourselves as well. It will not be an easy task. It will demand the united efforts of all Methodist womanhood to break down this age old prejudice and usage and remove this barrier that there may be no distinction because of sex, in the service that women may render to the Kingdom of God.

Your Chairman of Status of Women submits the following recommendations:

1. That time be given at each Zone and District meeting for the presentation of the question of the Status of Women, and that the suggested program and materials furnished by the committee be used at these meetings during the year.

2. That auxiliaries use the articles on ordination published in the several Advocates.

3. That the conference officers encourage and urge the use of the project furnished by the committee for the August auxiliary program.

MRS. V. H. SPINKS,
Chairman.

MAC DONELL WESLEY COMMUNITY HOUSE AND FRENCH MISSION SCHOOL

Houma, Louisiana

Our school family of seventy-five boys and girls and ten workers kept well and happy and very, very busy during the year just closed. There were many and peculiar difficulties, some of them financial, but the "good hand of our God was upon us for good" and the work moves forward.

One outstanding feature of the school is the fact that we have one of our own former pupils here as a teacher this year. This young man was in the first class to graduate from high school. He then went to Berry College where he worked his way through the four-year agriculture course and is now doing efficient work in that department at MacDonell School. Another pupil graduates this spring from the La. State Normal, still another is in college and two others are ready to enter as soon as we can plan for the finances. These are the "first fruits". Our Junior Class is the largest we have ever had and unusually strong boys and girls with high ideals and earnest purpose.

The great field in which we serve is slowly gathering new strength in the Christian life, and new communities and new and ever widening opportunities are opening up. The students of the school and former students are exerting a great influence and form the basis for a stronger work throughout this whole section.

The teachers of MacDonell School have been able this year, with the cooperation of our pastor and other agencies, to get some work started for "Louisiana's Three Thousand Indian Outcasts", many of whom live along the lower reaches of the bayous stretching from Houma to the Gulf.

These Indians of mixed breeds have been almost completely cut off from the things that make life worth while, and this small beginning of a work with them has brought great hope and eager gladness to their lives.

The investments which the Council and our own Louisiana Conference have made in the French work this year are bringing in good returns in spiritual values and human welfare. These dividends will increase in value as the days and years go by.

ST. MARK'S COMMUNITY CENTER REPORT FOR 1932

Three hundred children were enrolled in Vacation School the past summer. This was one of the most successful Bible schools we have ever had.

An accomplishment of the past years work is an organized choir. The music has been one weak phase of the Church program, so special effort has been put forth to get the young people interested in Church music. After several months of steady work the eleven members of the choir are now rendering special music for church services every Sunday morning. Vestments are worn and we feel that the choir has really inspired worship in the Sunday morning service.

Our Christmas Pageant which was given the night of our Kingdom Extension Offering, wa sone with a great deal more drama in it than any we had given before. The young people have done a great deal of religious drama, and as Christmas drew near they asked for something real dramatic. "O Come Let Us Adore Him" which has much drama was selected and it was well put on by eighteen characters. We also gave it in one of the large Methodist Churches in the city, and an offering to help out our Kingdom Extension pledge was taken. A Wesley Fellowship Group has been organized among our Young Adults which has proven quite successful. One of our young men was chosen President of the Wesley Fellowship Federation which is a city organization of all the young adult groups of the city.

Another one of our young men is President of the City Epworth League Union. Both these young men are Syrians and have received all their spiritual training through St. Mark's. We feel happy when we see our St. Mark's young people filling places of leadership and responsibility in the church work of the city. Many of our youth and young adults are growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Master, and are giving their best talents to His service.

The Jewish leaders of Mt. Sinai Temple asked St. Mark's to join with them and organize an Interdenominational Debating Club. The initial debate was given by two of St. Mark's young folks. The subject was "Resolved that the American Indian has been more cruelly treated in North America in the last four hundred years than has the negro." St. Marks debaters did honor to the Institution by their splendid presentation of the affirmative side of the debate. One special aim of the Club is to promote friendship and fellowship among the young people of the different churches throughout the city.

Besides the community center work each deaconess here has her department in the church and Epworth League or Wesley Fellowship which means a very full program for every one.

Several new clubs were organized the past year, and in spite of the depression and ohter handicaps the work has gone steadily forward with keen interest on every hand. The Lord has blessed our efforts for which we are truly thankful.

THE JUBILEE INN

Shreveport, Louisiana

During the last six months Jubilee Inn has been the home of thirty-two girls. Some of these have resided for a short period of time, some for a long period. The Inn has met the need of various types of girls. Some are away from home for the first time attending business school or working and the Inn has meant protection and guidance for them. There are those who desire a business education and because of financial reasons they must live at a minimum cost and they have found Jubilee Inn meeting this need. Then there are those who have such limited income that they can not live in a desirable location elsewhere and they find the Inn meeting every requirement of an up to date boarding home. Two girls have been given the opportunity of an education by serving tables to earn their board.

Improvement within the building and on the grounds are constantly being made in order that the girls may have a convenient, comfortable, and inviting home in which to live.

The physical and social life of each girl is given careful consideration by the one in charge, but there is a greater concern and that is the spiritual life of each. The day is begun with a short devotional, then once a week vesper services are held in which most of the girls voluntarily participate. Frequently at these services prominent men and women from the city come to lead the hearts of the girls to God. The opportunities for service for Christ here are many and it is indeed a privilege to serve Him.

Auxiliaries within reasonable distance of Shreveport send food supplies throughout year. Cash donations may be sent from Auxiliaries at any time.

Shreveport District has the greatest per cent. of Auxiliaries sending supplies each quarter, with Baton Rouge and Lake Charles coming next.

Our goal for 1933 is 100 Auxiliaries sending supplies each quarter.

Each Auxiliary asks each woman to can one quart of fruit or vegetables each quarter.

MRS. R. H. NELSON,
President, City Mission Board.

MRS. MARY E. FREEMAN,
Head Resident.
